MünchenerHyp hires Thomas Völker to lead the commercial real estate financing activities for international clients

Munich, 9 January 2018 – Münchener Hypothekenbank eG has hired Thomas Völker as head of commercial real estate international clients.

In his new role at MünchenerHyp he started January 1, 2018. He will be responsible for the expansion of the German lending business with non-German clients. Furthermore, he will be responsible for the commercial lending business with non-German clients in the Bank's international target markets UK, France, Spain and Benelux as well as expansion into other European real estate markets.

Bernhard Heinlein, member of the board of management of MünchenerHyp: "I am very pleased that Thomas Völker has opted for Münchener Hypothekenbank. With his experience with international customers and markets, we intend to further expand the commercial financing business."

Völker left Landesbank Hessen-Thüringen at the end of last year after 13 years at the bank. Before that he was working for 5 years for Aareal Bank. During this time he was able to gain experience in most of the European real estate lending markets.
